The Rideau Heritage Route is the Rideau River route for discovering Kingston through the eyes of Kingston Heritage Tour. The Rideau River route was once the waterway for all trans-Canada travel, and the Rideau Canal and Kingston Equestrian Centre are two of the many attractions. This route will take you on a unique journey through the Rideau River and along the waterfront.

The Old Hay Church is a historic church located near the site of the first permanent settlement in the area. The church has been restored and is open to visitors.

The Macpherson House Museum is located in the heart of downtown Kingston. The museum features a collection of artifacts and documents that highlight the history of the area.

The Rideau Canal was built in 1832 as a defense system for Kingston. It was garrisoned by the British army and is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The Kingston Penitentiary was built in 1829 as a maximum security prison. It was one of the most formidable prison complexes in North America.

The Murney Tower is a historic lighthouse located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It has been restored and is now open to visitors.

The Lyndhurst Bridge is a historic bridge located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was built in 1837 and has been restored.

Fort Ontario Historic Site is a historic fort located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. The fort was built in 1812 as a defense system for Kingston.

The Port of Kingston is a historic port located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was built in 1832 and is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The Kingston Military Museum is located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. The museum features a collection of artifacts and documents that highlight the history of the area.

The Royal Military College of Canada is a historic college located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was founded in 1819 and is now a world-renowned military college.

The Royal Military College of Canada Museum is located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. The museum features a collection of artifacts and documents that highlight the history of the area.

The Rideau Heritage Route Let you cruise into the Canadian Rockies, with charming waterfront, restaurants, patios, unique shopping and golf courses.

The Loyalist/Sydenham Route takes you through the scenic Loyalist Parkway, a popular tourist route that follows the historical Loyalist Trail.

The Thousand Islands/Great Waterway Route lets you experience the beauty of the Thousand Islands and the Great Waterway, with a spectacular panoramic view of the 1000 Islands.

The Card Air Route, The Royal Military College of Canada, Kingston, Ontario, Canada, is a historic military college located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was founded in 1819 and is now a world-renowned military college.

The Loyalist/Sydenham Route is a scenic route that follows the historical Loyalist Trail, with charming waterfront, restaurants, patios, unique shopping and golf courses.

The Rideau Heritage Route is the Rideau River route for discovering Kingston through the eyes of Kingston Heritage Tour. The Rideau River route was once the waterway for all trans-Canada travel, and the Rideau Canal and Kingston Equestrian Centre are two of the many attractions. This route will take you on a unique journey through the Rideau River and along the waterfront.

The Old Hay Church is a historic church located near the site of the first permanent settlement in the area. The church has been restored and is open to visitors.

The Macpherson House Museum is located in the heart of downtown Kingston. The museum features a collection of artifacts and documents that highlight the history of the area.

The Rideau Canal was built in 1832 as a defense system for Kingston. It was garrisoned by the British army and is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The Kingston Penitentiary was built in 1829 as a maximum security prison. It was one of the most formidable prison complexes in North America.

The Murney Tower is a historic lighthouse located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It has been restored and is now open to visitors.

The Lyndhurst Bridge is a historic bridge located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was built in 1837 and has been restored.

Fort Ontario Historic Site is a historic fort located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. The fort was built in 1812 as a defense system for Kingston.

The Port of Kingston is a historic port located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was built in 1832 and is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The Kingston Military Museum is located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. The museum features a collection of artifacts and documents that highlight the history of the area.

The Royal Military College of Canada is a historic college located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was founded in 1819 and is now a world-renowned military college.

The Royal Military College of Canada Museum is located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. The museum features a collection of artifacts and documents that highlight the history of the area.

The Rideau Heritage Route Let you cruise into the Canadian Rockies, with charming waterfront, restaurants, patios, unique shopping and golf courses.

The Loyalist/Sydenham Route takes you through the scenic Loyalist Parkway, a popular tourist route that follows the historical Loyalist Trail.

The Thousand Islands/Great Waterway Route lets you experience the beauty of the Thousand Islands and the Great Waterway, with a spectacular panoramic view of the 1000 Islands.

The Card Air Route, The Royal Military College of Canada, Kingston, Ontario, Canada, is a historic military college located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was founded in 1819 and is now a world-renowned military college.

The Loyalist/Sydenham Route is a scenic route that follows the historical Loyalist Trail, with charming waterfront, restaurants, patios, unique shopping and golf courses.

The Rideau Heritage Route is the Rideau River route for discovering Kingston through the eyes of Kingston Heritage Tour. The Rideau River route was once the waterway for all trans-Canada travel, and the Rideau Canal and Kingston Equestrian Centre are two of the many attractions. This route will take you on a unique journey through the Rideau River and along the waterfront.

The Old Hay Church is a historic church located near the site of the first permanent settlement in the area. The church has been restored and is open to visitors.

The Macpherson House Museum is located in the heart of downtown Kingston. The museum features a collection of artifacts and documents that highlight the history of the area.

The Rideau Canal was built in 1832 as a defense system for Kingston. It was garrisoned by the British army and is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The Kingston Penitentiary was built in 1829 as a maximum security prison. It was one of the most formidable prison complexes in North America.

The Murney Tower is a historic lighthouse located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It has been restored and is now open to visitors.

The Lyndhurst Bridge is a historic bridge located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was built in 1837 and has been restored.

Fort Ontario Historic Site is a historic fort located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. The fort was built in 1812 as a defense system for Kingston.

The Port of Kingston is a historic port located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was built in 1832 and is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The Kingston Military Museum is located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. The museum features a collection of artifacts and documents that highlight the history of the area.

The Royal Military College of Canada is a historic college located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was founded in 1819 and is now a world-renowned military college.

The Royal Military College of Canada Museum is located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. The museum features a collection of artifacts and documents that highlight the history of the area.

The Rideau Heritage Route Let you cruise into the Canadian Rockies, with charming waterfront, restaurants, patios, unique shopping and golf courses.

The Loyalist/Sydenham Route takes you through the scenic Loyalist Parkway, a popular tourist route that follows the historical Loyalist Trail.

The Thousand Islands/Great Waterway Route lets you experience the beauty of the Thousand Islands and the Great Waterway, with a spectacular panoramic view of the 1000 Islands.

The Card Air Route, The Royal Military College of Canada, Kingston, Ontario, Canada, is a historic military college located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was founded in 1819 and is now a world-renowned military college.

The Loyalist/Sydenham Route is a scenic route that follows the historical Loyalist Trail, with charming waterfront, restaurants, patios, unique shopping and golf courses.

The Rideau Heritage Route is the Rideau River route for discovering Kingston through the eyes of Kingston Heritage Tour. The Rideau River route was once the waterway for all trans-Canada travel, and the Rideau Canal and Kingston Equestrian Centre are two of the many attractions. This route will take you on a unique journey through the Rideau River and along the waterfront.

The Old Hay Church is a historic church located near the site of the first permanent settlement in the area. The church has been restored and is open to visitors.

The Macpherson House Museum is located in the heart of downtown Kingston. The museum features a collection of artifacts and documents that highlight the history of the area.

The Rideau Canal was built in 1832 as a defense system for Kingston. It was garrisoned by the British army and is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The Kingston Penitentiary was built in 1829 as a maximum security prison. It was one of the most formidable prison complexes in North America.

The Murney Tower is a historic lighthouse located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It has been restored and is now open to visitors.

The Lyndhurst Bridge is a historic bridge located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was built in 1837 and has been restored.

Fort Ontario Historic Site is a historic fort located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. The fort was built in 1812 as a defense system for Kingston.

The Port of Kingston is a historic port located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was built in 1832 and is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The Kingston Military Museum is located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. The museum features a collection of artifacts and documents that highlight the history of the area.

The Royal Military College of Canada is a historic college located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. It was founded in 1819 and is now a world-renowned military college.

The Royal Military College of Canada Museum is located near the entrance to the Kingston Penitentiary. The museum features a collection of artifacts and documents that highlight the history of the area.