Event Description

2023 is in full swing and what better way to fuse feel-good vibes into the new year than a 75-minute guided sauna experience (with an optional cold plunge) followed by an indulgent seafood fondue feast, paired with a selection of natural wines chosen specifically to suit your palate.

This endorphin-rich packaged experiential journey begins at the Frontenac Club where the team from Stoked Sauna Co. will guide you through a 75-minute sauna experience (with an optional but highly recommended cold plunge).

Following your sweat session, you will be transported by the Kingston Trolley to The Secret Garden Inn, where you will be served a multicourse seafood-focused menu created by celebrity chef and seafood specialist Charlotte Langley. As an added bonus, you will explore and taste traditional pairings and non-traditional wines from some of the most unique and innovative natural wine producers selected by natural wine expert Jackson MacLennan.

MENU

The Secret Garden Inn

First Course

Seacuterie to share with crisps, citrus, crusty bread, and good olive oil

Wine pairing: 2019 Difetto Perfetto, Sorella Bronca. This Prosecco Superiore from Veneto, Italy with crisp, fruit-forward bubbles is creamy on the palate with hints of brioche.

Third Course

Cheese creamy lobster bisque fondue with crab, lobster, shrimp, clams, and mussels

Wine pairing: 2021 Ledes Albariño, Casa Monte Pio. This lively and fresh Albariño from Rias Baixas, Spain offers deep notes of stone fruit and citrus, framed by a slight salinity.

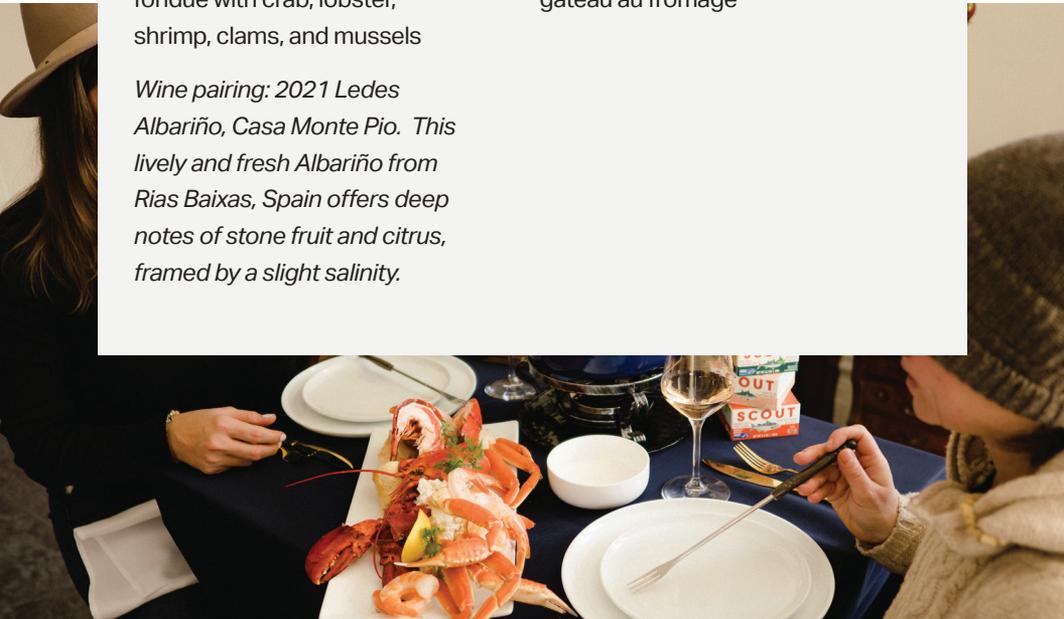

Second Course

Fragrant winter greens with fennel, celery, parsley, and allium vinegar

Wine pairing: 2019 Zweigelt, Umatham. This beautiful, light-bodied ruby red from the legendary Burgenland in Austria has cherry aromas and winter berry on the palate and soft notes of pepper on the finish.

Dessert Course

Creamy sea-salted caramel gâteau au fromage
